

The Atholl Palace Hotel has much to recommend it:

- ample car parking,
- a large dance hall,
- a range of leisure activities
- pleasant walks

It is a short walk into the town itself, and a short drive to the renowned House of Bruar. Pitlochry is also a good base for those who wish to add on a few days, perhaps to visit the Festival Theatre, or to explore Highland Perthshire.

Our band this year is Ewan Galloway band, and Ewan will play for our class on Saturday as well. Ewan has travelled throughout UK and abroad, spreading great music and energy. If you haven't already had the pleasure of hearing Ewan, this is your chance.

This year we welcome Janet Johnston as our teacher. Janet, from Edinburgh, has been dancing since childhood, learning Highland and Step dancing along the way. She teaches at the Ochil club in Stirling and is involved with Stirling primary schools. She is looking forward to joining us in Pitlochry and we are looking forward to having her.

If you have any special room or access requirements, please bring these to the attention of the organisers at the time of booking
