

The Atholl Palace Hotel has much to recommend it:

- ample car parking,
- a large dance hall,
- a range of leisure activities
- pleasant walks

It is a short walk into the town itself, and a short drive to the renowned House of Bruar. Pitlochry is also a good base for those who wish to add on a few days, perhaps to visit the Festival Theatre, or to explore Highland Perthshire.

We are delighted that the Alan Ross SCD Band will play for us again at our delayed 33rd Weekend.

This year we welcome a new teacher, Fiona Mackie. Fiona has been dancing since the age of four and has always had a love for Scottish dance and music. Taken to dances from a very young age she has danced most of her life in Dundee but has also been lucky enough to dance in many places around the world. She has taught classes for many years, covering all levels, making sure the fun of dancing is enjoyed by everyone. For the last few years, Fiona has been teaching the advanced class in Dundee Branch. She has also taught in the UK and in Europe and is very much looking forward to meeting you all at your weekend in Pitlochry and getting back to dancing after all this time.

If you have any special room or access requirements, please bring these to the attention of the organisers at the time of booking
